SYNOPSIS

ACC REFORM – A LEGAL PERSPECTIVE. LESSONS AND LEARNINGS FROM 1999

Mark Todd

Mark was heavily involved in advising insurers, trustees and employers on the introduction of ACC competition in 1999. He proposes to talk about the legal and regulatory aspects of that exercise, with a view to identifying the lessons and learnings that may be relevant in the future. Mark will aim to provide a forum through which delegates can share views on this subject.
